

Project management is critical to success in the business world

Does it mean that you have to read thousand of pages of methodologies and to spend hundred of hours

For all project team roles

Our services take into account the specific role you play in the project. Perspective vary considerably if y

At all project stages

When a project player requests assistance, the project can be at any stage of his life. Before launch of th

Project management services Project management techniques

We provide structured training or assist you in applying these techniques in real projects with coaching p

Project Office

We assist you in designing and implementing the new organizational unit, defining his mission, function,

Program management

For large organizations, where dozen (or hundred or even thousand !) projects are running in the same t

Assessing project management maturity

For organizations who already have implemented a methodology and are considering an improvement

Training, coaching, mentoring

All training actions are in harmony with our two important principles : customized approach and business

The learning and integrating process can take many forms, from very formal to completely informal, dep

Support in implementing solutions

If you are already engaged in real project, if you are looking for support in developing solutions to improv

More specifically, we assist you by :

- Assessing the situation
- Identifying improvement areas
- Designing solutions
- Planning and realising improvement initiatives